

Welcome to our Breakfast Club

The club aims to provide high quality care of children, attending our school, before school. The children's safety is paramount and our activities are geared towards providing them with a range of interesting activities within a calm and purposeful environment.

Ethos and behaviour

The ethos at Breakfast Club supports the school's values of growth, respect, enjoyment, ambition and togetherness. The organisation is designed to help children in a number of ways

- Gain independence and self-esteem
- Showing respect to each other and the adult supervisors
- Enjoying the food and range of activities
- Try new games and activities.
- Playing together with everyone else at Breakfast Club regardless of age.

The club is popular with between 40 to 50 children attending daily.
